

L-R: Tsalanidis, Anagnostou, Kalimnakis and Noble Member for Sandringham, Mike Thompson hosted a dinner at Parliament House in Melbourne last Tuesday for members friends and supporters of the Australian Hellenic Memorial Foundation. Australian Hellenic Memorial Foundation President Pantellis Kalymnakis offered a brief overview of the Foundation's role while Brigadier David Noble spoke of the strong bond Greece and Australia cemented during the Second World War. The Hellenic Memorial Foundation needs $150,000 to complete a memorial site which pays tribute to the 841 Australians who lost their lives in Greece. Donation can be made to the Commonwealth Bank in account number 063 113 1025 1954 or by send a check to Australian Hellenic Memorial Foundation, PO box 29 Glen Iris, 3049.

For further information contact Pantellis Kalymnakis on 95876032 or John Anagnostou on 98228943.

pic: J. Ermidis