The new Australian Hellenic Memorial in the Domain Gardens was dedicated yesterday to those Australian and Greek men and women who fought and lost their lives on the mainland of Greece and in the Battle of Crete during the Second World War. The unique ceremony featured the placement of rolls of parchment with the names of those who lost their lives in a crypt in the middle of the memorial. The ceremony also involved many veterans, Australian and Greek government representatives, community leaders and the famed Greek Presidential Guard. Photo: John Ermides
